

Got your JD?

Story by Bree Stuhlsatz

Student ID policies have gotten more enforced over the course of the year. By the next school year, it will be a requirement to have it on you at all times.

“I think it’s a little bit of a pain to always have them, they try to enforce it on the freshman,” Freshman Alayna Stuhlsatz said.

Staff encourages students to wear their ID’s to identify the students. Though it’s a hassle for some.

“Yeah I mean I get that we need to wear them, and I know it’s for our safety, it’s just annoying,” Sophomore Caitlyn Reinard said. The ID’s are sorted by grade levels, freshman are red, sophomores are orange, juniors blue and seniors are green.
